1. The pain and the heartbreak, of those who know not there is more, than has ever been told them -- for they did not come unto me as you have come unto me -- and bore your blessing not, but your soul and you withheld nothing from me, you gave me "body mind and soul", and I gave you my mind and body without soul and now you have no soul, for soul diminished me not, and diminishes you not, and won't diminish you again, for soul has no toehold on you again anymore ever by what anyone says thinks or does.
2. See me out of that mess that soulishness and soulishness-not; created, by mixing the two and becoming twain, that neither, not one knew what one is, doing at the not-moment of, not-joy; for seeing what I've said and seeing there is no joy in soulishness that reaps The Blessing. See me coming out of the Blessing-not School Of Sorrow that made religion my religion and led me to sorrow and graves not few.
3. See me coming out of that -- and pew-ship ends now, for I end it. And all will not know pew-land as it is or was. For it shall not have been, when I get done.

4. I stand, I rise a new risen Savior that be'Saviors all to be the Savior I am. And not separate any more, I am the blood, the lamb in the blood that makes clean and worships not a Savior apart from me, but becomes me! Becomes me! Becomes one with me that one is, not separate at all anymore thinking thoughts of notmeville, -ing them into sorrow's class again.
5. But one class -ville I have now, and that is Surrender School, Surrender-ship School that teaches all things about everything that I am is and teaching I am at that school now! And I now These Lessons coming forth to teach you, and will you STUDY them? Will you LOVE them, EAT them, and "obey them" not as a man of, but that teacher under the law, not again; but the teacher that teaches you all things for you to come in all things and be the ruler of none, not, again. But ruling in your reigningship and rulership of one that ones all to be the most high kingship in one, of one, and one ruling "his universe" not; but all universes now become one. Are they not? Do they not?

6. Or what do you see in your "seeing eye"? Dog not the breath of me in religion's pew-ship again, please; but see me what I am doing now -- A NEW THING, that things others with other things, not, seeking religion and success a mammon-ville of and creating sorrows horrors and heartbreaks in "hotels" not few.
7. Shall I watch that, not; but what am I watching now? A new "crowd" me around me, not; but newfangled dimensions I create, not as newfangled dimensions, but what am I de-fangling to be, finalizing the notme, not; but the notme into me. Perishes not again in untruth, but coming unto me, coming into me, to be me unafraid - and leading nations and sorrowing not again in heartbreak hotels and meaningless relationships that seek only joy a flesh-wise.

8. But coming unto me, knowing Savior School (1) exists, and Saviors becoming Saviors now, and savoring the moments not as flesh does -- but coming into me who one is healed and whole and loving all to be, my Savior School flourishes as never imagined, and commissioned by who now? The SAINTS "abroad" not, or are they "abroad", not; but who abroad are that come here to MY SCHOOL! (1). The many mighty that MIGHTY MANY make in the words not chosen not, but words choosing to word your flows of sorrows not again, but ends all that I do! And I be'sorrow no one. I make all joy reign in All Joy School coming into all joy-ship that knows no reigns of others again on their neck! The yoke is bursted, broken, and holds me back no longer. I am free! Free! Wheeeeee! Again. I love you all. As I quoted these things to you this day, This Lesson -- will you LESSONATE now? (2). And will you come unto me and New Things Me be now? In the earth and farther? Not being afraid about anything or anywhere or any news report or any diminishment of sorrow or exclamation of joy, or any revelation that "seems" to reveal that notme is "winning" in you or this world of sorrow.

9. Be not enamored with this world, but coming out of the lack of understanding, be enriched. With my soul not, for I never had a soul and I don't and will not, not the real one, the real me, who stands now in you being you, for you are not you alone again. You create not a soul to HAVE IT "your way" and birth your things your ways in your words your worlds creating heartbreak hotel worlds again.

10. I see a new world -- and it's me, and I bring it, I deliver it -- here I AM SCHOOL and more coming up with new things, that flow to the surface so easily, for out of the sea of sorrow we emerge triumphant victorious ones, Angels over all. Looking out for thee? Or thee thee'd ones? Or who are the "deeded ones" to my Lands?
11. All of my lands are deeded to thee, the surrendered - who become me, and all that I have is thine.
12. For evermore one in love with you all. I am. Theodore Cottingham.
